

Superior Press Announces Five Year Contract Extension with a Top 5 Banking Institution

Santa Fe Springs, Calif. – June 20, 2016 – Superior Press has announced its continued relationship with a top five asset-size bank by signing a five year contract extension across three treasury product lines of support: DDA check and deposit slip printing, cash vault supplies, and RDC check scanner fulfillment and hardware repair.

SVP of Sales, Steve Traut commented from a recent banking event in Indian Wells, California, “We are aggressively adding more sales coverage in the Midwest and Southeast to support our long term commitment to this relationship with the hiring of industry veterans, Patrick Smith and Ryan Stidfole, who will be responsible for expanding our business from Fargo, North Dakota to Miami Florida.

“Superior Press is grateful for its long 15+ year history with this top banking institution as its treasury supply fulfillment partner supporting hundreds of thousands of its clients across the country. We are thrilled for the continued opportunity to successfully support the relationship for the next five years,” states Kevin Traut, President of Superior Press.

“The stringent information security, risk compliance and due diligence needed to service an institution of this size is a testament to the internal info security policies and practices we have had in place over the years,” continued Traut. “We focus on these standards each day to make ourselves an outstanding partner across the country to all commercial and community banks of any asset size.”
